Private Lives – You Can't Fight Live – But it's fun to try

Tuesday, May 28 at 8:00pm * Avon Theatre

Divorced for five years, Elyot and Amanda are reunited by chance – while honeymooning with their new spouses. Succumbing to raging ex appeal, they run off together to Paris, only to discover all over again – hilariously – that there's more than one way to drive each other crazy. The wit of Noël Coward is at its cheekiest in this uproarious romantic comedy, set in a sophisticated world of cocktails, glamour and sparkling repartee — A comedy by Noel Coward.

Merry Wives – Mistresses of Mischief

Wednesday, May 29 at 2:00pm * Festival Theatre

Pursuing two respectably married women at the same time, a would-be seducer fails to anticipate that his targets will, quite literally, compare notes. Nor has he reckoned on the mischievous spirit in which the wives will use their wits and wiles to teach him the error of his ways. Set in the 1950s, in a town not unlike Stratford, Ontario, this production brings Shakespeare's rollicking comedy close to home – and close to our hearts — A Shakespeare play.

Little Shop of Horrors—It's Funny How Love Can Grow

Wednesday, May 29 at 8:00pm * Avon Theatre

Skid Row florist's clerk Seymour Krelborn is too shy to declare his love for his co-worker Audrey – until a mysterious exotic plant brings him unexpected fame and fortune. There's just one problem: the plant has ambitions of its own, and it thrives on only one food – human blood. Awesome special effects, a tender love story and a fabulous sixties-style score all combine to make this deliciously campy sci-fi spoof a "monster" hit — A Musical.

OPTIONAL
$99.00

* OPENING NIGHT ****

Henry VIII – Death Of A Marriage, Birth Of An Era

Wednesday, May 29 at 8:00pm * Studio Theatre

Church and state collide when England's king defies papal authority by seeking to divorce his wife, Katherine of Aragon. The consequences will be epochal for the country – and calamitous for the king's adviser, Cardinal Wolsey, who has been playing a dangerous game of his own. Passion, political intrigue and personal faith drive the action as Shakespeare brings vividly to life the thrilling human drama behind a pivotal moment in history — A Shakespeare Play.

OPTIONAL
$85.00

Billy Elliot the Musical – A Show To Make Your Spirit Shine!

Thursday, May 30 at 2:00pm * Festival Theatre

Dreams don't come easy in the hardscrabble mining town, riven by a bitter national strike, where eleven-year-old Billy lives with his bereaved family. But Billy's discovery of his talent for dance awakens in him a passion that will transform his life and win the hearts of his whole community. With its inspirational story, breathtaking dance numbers and music by pop legend Elton John, this award-winning show – based on the smash-hit movie – will appeal to all — A Musical.
