

LEGEND

The proposed modifications to the Zoning By-Law follow the following rules:

The proposed text is highlighted and, when it aims to modify a passage that is currently in effect, follows it immediately. In all cases, the additions or modifications are in bold.

If a word is deleted, the proposed text is highlighted and the words before and after the one deleted are in bold. If a whole sentence is deleted, the proposed text is stripped of that text and is highlighted only.

Ex:

1.1.5 : Annexed documents

1. Annex « 1 », entitled « Zoning plan », is an integral part of the present by-law;
2. Annex « 2 », entitled « Schedules of uses and standards », is an integral part of the present by-law;
3. Annex « 3 », entitled « Guidelines applicable to new developments close to railway activities », is an integral part of the present by-law.

The proposed modifications to the schedules of uses and standards follow the following rules:

The proposed line is highlighted and, when it aims to modify a line currently in force, follows it immediately.
